

The Comany Pak Home Textiles:

Faisalabad, the largest textile city of Pakistan also being called Manchester of Pakistan is the hub for textile manufacturers and contributing towards Pakistan's economy with its substantial share of textile exports. In the heart of Faisalabad resides The Pak home Textile , a state of the art vertically integrated textile manufacturing company known for its world-class textile development and exports. From our inception in 2022, we are engaged in supreme quality manufacturing of Greige/Processed Fabrics, Home Textile, and Institutional Garments.

We at Pak Home have a passion for innovation and quality standardization which keeps us ready for today and tomorrow. Our infrastructure and services are backed by our innovative product and solutions which deliver enhanced results to our customers.

Our HR Philosophy is to provide a conducive environment with a special focus on career development and making our employees enable to deal with the challenges of today and tomorrow. Indeed, Pak Home Textile, is a fun place to work at!

VISION:

To be the preferred choice of customers through innovative products and solutions and be a leading contributor to the economy by enhancing value for stakeholders.

CORE VALUES:

Corporate is the fundamental beliefs upon which a business and its behavior are based. At Pak Home Textile, we believe that our employees are the representation of our business to the world, so they should be technical yet ethical in their profession. Our values include